

HITCHEN & DISTRICT CANINE SOCIETY OPEN SHOW 18 OCT 2015

CRITIQUE FOR BOXERS

My thanks to the Officers & Committee for inviting me to judge at this well organised friendly show in such a fantastic venue. Sadly on the day the boxers were poorly represented & with absentees only 2 to judge, but 2 beautiful examples of the breed.

Class 275 Puppy 0 entries

Class 276 Junior 0 entries

Class 277 Post Graduate 1

1. Kelly's Casemates Dumbledore JW

Delighted to see the red/white boy who I have admired from the ringside. At just over 18 months old & shown in the hardest of conditions in his tight red jacket he is all male of correct proportions. Balanced head with dark kind eyes of correct shape, well padded muzzle evident chin with wide jaw tight straight bite.

Crested neck, well laid shoulders level topline which he held on the move, cover.

Well angulated hindquarters which he uses to achieve his excellent reach & drive.

BOB.

Class 278 Open 2 (1Abs)

1. Harvlin Hukaran Bliss

Brindle/white bitch shown in tip top condition her coat glistening with health.

Clean correctly balanced feminine head with dark eyes & the kindest of expressions.

Evident chin good dentition.

Balanced outline with good front well arched neck level topline correct tail set & good rear angulation. Moved with reach & drive & style, RBOB.
