Puppy (2)

1. Malka's Life Image Euanda Seyr(Yorkshire Terrier)-6 month girl with flat head and correct V shaped ears, dark eyes. Good reach of neck, would prefer slightly shorter back, nicely turned stifles. Moved with drive showing pads when going away- BP
2. Wilson's Mezrab Miracle Sunrise of Sherrldene(Pekingese)

Junior (1)

1. Fryett's Crystaldrift Leonidis(Italian Greyhound) Correct long skull with fine muzzle, well placed ears and large eyes. Long shoulder and thigh in balance with each other, deep chest with long ribs. Correctly set and carried tail. Moved straight coming and going but would prefer more rear propulsion.

Post Grad (2, 1Ab)

1. Malka's Dzheus Love Life Image(Yorkshire Terrier)- Quite an eyecatcher, Erect V shaped ears on a flat skull. Dark, intelligent, expressive eyes coupled with a moderate muzzle produced a top quality head study. An excellent silky, shiny coat covered a compact, well muscled body. An elegant neck led to good front angulation, an absolutely level topline and powerful rear quarters. Initially moved a little erratically but quickly settled into positive, driving balanced movement with excellent head carriage. In the group challenge he pulled all the stops out at just the right time to give an almost regal appearance. BAVNSC & G1

Post Grad(3)

1. Santoriello & Skelton's Tubize Manhattan by Pinicio-Correct elongated head with high set ears and virtually black eyes. An elegant neck led to well sprung ribs followed by sweeping stifles. An excellent shape standing. Moved with drive, would prefer more precise hackney movement.

Superb neck with an arch, sloping shoulders and well sprung ribs combined with his short coupling and slightly sloping topline to give an excellent outline. Papillon

Puppy(1)

1. Slater's Baillion Black Obsidian. Puppy with correctly set and carried ears and a fine muzzle and dark eyes. A moderate neck and well sprung ribs which would be improved by a little more meat on them. Fine bone. Moved truly in all directions-BP

Junior(2,1Ab)

1. Miller & Ryan's Feorlig Wake Up Maggie. A dainty little girl with so much going for her. Ears set at 45 degrees and well feathered giving the desired butterfly shape. Fine muzzle, definite stop and rounded skull enhanced by dark, round eyes which had a lively sparkle in them, all these combined to give a balanced head piece. Plenty of body coat and well carried and feathered tail. Medium neck, well sprung ribs and good angles front and back. On the move she has exceptional front reach but lost a little rear propulsion in the group challenge-BOB & G3

Post Grad(4,1Ab)

1. Bull's Altaya Star Attraction. Finely boned throughout with medium neck and sufficient rib, I'd have preferred a slightly longer loin. Another nice head study with excellent ears - set, carriage and furnishings all ideal. Dark eye, fine muzzle and sharp stop. Moved true coming and going with nice drive from well turned stifles but a little high stepping today.
2. Stanmore's Altaya Savannah
3. Geary's Taliesyn Wild Tansey

Open(5,1Ab)

1. Stanmore's Altaya Just One Look. Another with well carried and feathered ears, fine tapered muzzle. A moderate neck and sprung rib cage. Nicely balanced body covered in a profuse coat. He carried his compact body soundly round the ring oozing personality at all times. RBOB.

1. Knott's Maid of Starlight. Excellent head shape with correct ears, dark expressive eyes and foxy look. Small and compact with well laid shoulders-made a nice shape. Good coat with large frill and beautifully carried tail. Moved well front and back in profile, would prefer a little more strength moving away.
2. Wilding's Breezelyn Solitaire TAF

Post Grad(2)

1. Crossley's Sharmipom Playing to Win(imp). A typical foxy head with small ears carried erect and correctly placed eyes which I'd prefer a shade darker. Short solid neck into well laid shoulders with good spring of rib and short back. I'd like more positive movement.
2. Wilding's Bumblecorns' Deltas Dawn at Suepapom

Open(2)

1. Crossley's Nyellastock Shadow with Pikapom. A quite gorgeous head, equilateral to look down on and foxy when face on with correct bite. An almost round, dark lustrous eye giving a gentle intelligent look. Well put together from short neck through to well laid shoulders and short compact body with nicely rounded ribs. A full and ample double coat of correct texture enhanced the overall body shape. A superb frill and high set flatly carried tail completed a typical picture. Movement was brisk and purposeful covering the ground freely and truly. Unlucky not to get a group placing.

Toy Group

I was delighted by the depth of quality in this group challenge. A number of dogs were really unlucky not to be placed.

1. Yorkshire Terrier: Malka's Dzheus Love Life Image(see AVNSC Post Grad)
2. Griffon Bruxellois: Oliver-Barratt's Risethor Laidbackjack – Relatively large, well rounded head with high set ears, most definite stop and prominent chin, together with large round eyes gave a truly cheeky expression. Wide chest, short level back and overall square shape capped by a correct high set tail. True in movement coming and going but excelled for drive in profile.
3. Papillon: Miller & Ryan's Feorlig Wake Up Maggie (see Papillon Junior)
4. Miniature Pinscher:Santoriello & Skelton's Ch. Pinicio Jelly Bean JW ShCM (see Min Pin Open)

Toy Puppy Group

1. Miniature Pinscher: Trasler's Dobenar Be In My Show (see Min Pin Puppy)
2. Coton De Tulear: Hancock's Flamencoton Seimei NAF TAF(see AV Puppy)
3. LC Chihuahua: Ansell's X-Lady Myogo Dogomania – A feisty little chap with large dark eyes in a well balanced apple head, large erect ears set at correct angle. Well laid shoulders and good spring of rib with deep chest. .A constantly wagging sickle tail and well turned stifle made for a pleasing rear end. Even, balanced movement with both reach and drive.
4. CKCS: Nice size girl with dark, round, expressive eyes and almost flat skull between her ears. Well tapered muzzle. Nicely balanced and made throughout. Maturity should bring body width and coat to complete an attractive picture.
